

Innovative Tableware

For pre-school children

Steadyco is a young dynamic company, providing parents with a range of exciting and innovative infant feeding products.

Our award winning Steadycup[®], was designed to provide children with a mouth friendly alternative to spouted beakers. Its unique design and style has generated great levels of interest from healthcare professionals and retailers alike.

The Let's EAT Table Tools Collection is designed for pre-school children and has been developed with nutritionists to help prevent obesity by producing products that are the correct size for the food portions of pre-school children.

Why choose Steadyco?

less spills

The unique 'steady' shape of the range helps reduce spills and the easy-grip rims of the Bowl and Plate help with co-ordination.

right size

Developed with nutritionists, the Plates, Bowl and Cups are correctly sized to help parents measure the ideal food portions for pre-school children.

real cutlery

The Cutlery is designed to fit the hands and mouths of little ones and allows children to mimic adults and learn to eat on their own. Unlike most children's cutlery - they work!

easy clean

'Drip Dry' drain holes make cleaning easy.

grown up

Eating with grown up tableware helps your child build self confidence and social skills.

non-toxic

All of Steadyco's products are made of non-toxic recyclable plastic that contains no phthalates or BPA and are all dishwasher, microwave (except the Cutlery, which has metal ends) and freezer safe.

Ever wonder whether you are feeding your pre-schooler the right amount?

Do you wish you could find cutlery in between baby spoons and adult sized?

The answer is Steadyco!

Stackable Steadycup®

The award winning 140ml Steadycup® is designed to provide an alternative to spouted beakers and to help wean children from bottles to grown up cups.

Alongside its mouth friendly qualities, the wide base helps prevent spills and boost confidence, while its small handle aims to increase dexterity and co-ordination.
